

Guidance for You. Confidence for Your Clients.

An SPBA membership helps your entire team stay informed and prepared with numerous resources to help your firm better serve your clients. Self-funded benefits are subject to countless complex regulatory changes, and at SPBA, we analyze and share those changes with you. SPBA is a leading voice for employee benefits and a major behind-the-scenes sounding board for government policymakers.

Educate Policy Makers. Shape Key Topics.

Federal agency officials often turn to SPBA to provide the real-world perspectives of our members to shape policy ideas and regulatory implementation because we act as a non-partisan think tank—identifying, tracking and shaping new regulations, legislations and interpretations. SPBA has influenced many of these past and present issues. As members, you are invited to weigh in on the issues that impact your business.

SPBA takes an active role in helping to shape the future of policy issues that impact your business, including:

- Price Transparency
- State Actions Impacting Self-Funding
- Health and Welfare Compliance
- HIPAA Administrative Simplification
- Surprise Billing
- Air Ambulance Billing
- Privacy/Security (HIPAA, FTC, FDA)

Government Compliance Education for Better Decision-Making.

Position yourself to make more informed strategic decisions with SPBA's triple-perspective approach. We offer in-depth explanations, summaries and highlights of regulatory and legislative developments from the TPA, employer and plan perspectives.

SPBA UPDATE

Stay current on the government compliance insights and news that impacts your business—delivered in both mobile and print formats.

WEBSITE

Reference high-level explanations, technical analyses, and templates on sbatpa.org.

EMAIL ALERTS

Keep track of the latest emerging developments as they unfold.

MEETINGS

Interact directly with regulation writers and your professional colleagues to stay informed and share your experience.

WEBINARS

Save on travel costs while sharing expert knowledge with your staff.

| Member Benefits

Stay Ahead of TPA Industry Developments

SPBA highlights emerging types of services, clients and profit centers to help your business stay ahead of the curve.

Promote the Value of Your Industry

Leverage resources like articles, model letters, and self-fundingsuccess.com to educate your clients and the public on how self-funding plans work and how other employers are using them.

Learn from Member-to-Member Sharing

Learn from the experiences and insights of SPBA members that administer benefit plans from every size and type of employment—across every industry and profession. From large corporations to small businesses, union, state and local governments, religious groups, and association sponsored plans, SPBA's member experiences can help you problem solve in your own business.

Follow TPA Licensing Statutes

Save more than the cost of your membership with SPBA's downloadable guides to licensing obligations from every state. SPBA surveys the State Departments of Insurance to provide the most recent information, so you understand the licensing statutes that impact your business.

Get Breaking News on Court Cases

We review and explain relevant court cases that impact TPAs and their benefit plans, so you can prepare to implement changes and guide your clients appropriately.

Join us at sbatpa.org